Clemont August Petska, born in 1234, was a historian from Kovir.

Biography

The son of Tatiana Kranich, the younger sister of the philosopher Albert Kranich (one of the first philosophers to develop the theory of the omniverse) and Alan Petska, a Count from Redania. During his youth he was interested in history, the stories his mother told him and the ballads he heard about the witchers, at the age of 19 he would begin his journey across the Northen Kingdoms and Nilfgaard, with the purpose of creating the largest compilation of stories, of wars and socio-cultural issues of both regions, during his trip, he met the witcher Lukasz, one of the last witchers from the School of the Wolf, who saved his life that same day, from there they became friends, traveling together in both regions, helping him to accomplish his work.

Legacy

Albert Kranich, would influence such important figures as Fabio Sachs. Who, influenced by this philosopher, during his various expeditions around The Continent, would compile all possible knowledge of the different cultures he met. He would later publish it all in different books until his death in 1306.

He would also be of great influence on intellectuals such as the mage Istredd of Aedd Gynvael, who would support some of the theories that Kranich presented in his various studies.
